Supporting Evidence: Ms. Zimmerman was released from the Port of Hope residential reentry center (RRC) on April 2, 2013. The offender went to the address where she was approved to reside at on that date, and spent the night. According to Kari Cameron, the woman she was staying with, Ms. Zimmerman left the next morning, April 3, 2013, to go to the Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS), and she has not returned nor made any effort to contact the United States Probation Office or Ms. Cameron. Ms. Zimmerman was given a phone by Ms. Cameron to use. She does not answer the phone. All of her clothing and makeup were left at the above address. The U.S. Probation Office contacted Ms. Zimmerman's mother, who indicated that she has not heard from Ms. Zimmerman. Ms. Zimmerman came into the probation office on March 25, 2013, to sign the required probation forms. She was told at that time that once she was released from the RRC, she would need to contact this officer. Ms. Zimmerman has not made any effort to contact this officer and her whereabouts are currently unknown.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a warrant for the arrest of the defendant to answer the allegations contained in this petition.
